outdoor entertaining areas, a large rumpus/family room, front TV/sitting room, a generously sized home office AND 4 large bedrooms, including ceiling fans and built-in wardrobes, this home really does have it all. Not to mention what the outside has to offer - a double carport with extra height, two lockup garage spaces, a lockable storage room, covered area for the mower, and a fenced off paddock for the horse - with its own entrance off the road.

Upon entering this property through the remote controlled gates down the new concrete driveway, you will notice the incredible care and love this property has undergone with beautifully maintained gardens, trees and your own newly refurbished pond complete with a tiled, sitting area under the gazebo. At night this property lights up like a wonderland, perfect for entertaining.

This home is complimented by the 8ft full wrap around verandah - any spot is perfect for a morning coffee. Entering through the timber and glass paneled front door, you are instantly met with a homely and spacious feel provided by the high ceilings, and wide entry. To the left you will find the front sitting room and off to the right is the home office, then the dining room and the kitchen. The well-equipped Tasmania Oak kitchen overlooks the large rumpus and is sure to impress the cook of the family. It features plenty of cupboard space, stone bench-tops, SMEG gas cooker, rangehood, dishwasher, large fridge space and walk-in pantry.

The master suite is down the hallway complete with a walk-in robe, ensuite and A/C, the remaining 3 bedrooms are at the opposite end of the home providing complete separation from the master. The family bathroom has a separate shower, bathtub, vanity and a separate toilet room. The
