RE/MAX Regency, Robina

with five bedrooms, or perhaps four plus an office should you require one.

The sumptuous master suite provides plenty of space and don't be surprised if you find yourself spending extra time rousing in the morning as you gaze through the massive windows, taking in the ocean and mountain views, or perhaps a morning coffee on the private balcony will energise you whilst listening to the glorious birdsong of the Hinterland. Three of the other bedrooms share the upper level with the master suite, along with the modern family bathroom and upstairs lounge space.

The stylish decor on the lower level is underlined by gorgeous Blackbutt flooring sweeping through the living areas with a sophisticated yet welcoming charm. The open living space is framed with expansive glass sliding doors which perfectly frame the stunning natural backdrop. The sliding doors pull back to expose the impressive hardwood deck that beckons you outside to dine, party with friends or sit back with a book whilst keeping an eye on those special views, which I may have mentioned before!

The kitchen is centrally located and is the heart of the home. Beautifully finished with tone surfaces, stone benchtops, quality cabinetry and high-end appliances, with the all-important gas cooktop. There's an island bench with breakfast bar.

All in all, this package represents a very special home, with absolutely nothing to do aside from enjoy. If you wish to wake up to this stunning scenery, please move quickly, as these do not come along every day.....

Some of the many features include -

- *An immaculately presented home, on two levels
- *Perfectly positioned to take in spectacular Hinterland views and cooling breezes
