If beach walks are your thing, then this modern home might interest you.

As soon as you enter, the vaulted ceilings give a sense of space and airiness with plenty of high set windows allowing plenty of light to brighten the space.

The layout is modern open plan and entertaining friendly as you can see the patio, the dining area and lounge room from the central kitchen.

Set on a large corner block the huge rear garden is a blank canvas and ready for whatever you need.

Storage for the boat, caravan and shed plus a big pool maybe, and two street access is an option.

The property will be vacant possession in the new year
